Her recent program, "Jump Start Your Vision," is the first online program focused solely on teaching women how to take control of their own transformation and finally say yes to their dreams.

"I created Jumpstart Your Vision to be the perfect merger between life and business," Simone explains. "When I started Overcoming Her my mission was to help other women navigate and overcome their own life's obstacles, and what I found out along the way was that many of them had aspirations of starting their own business or personal brands but didn't know the necessary steps to do it successfully. Well Jumpstart is the solution, together over the course of 6 weeks I teach you how to take your own life experiences and your current skills and turn it into a income generating machine."

This 6-week accelerator program will train and coach women into pivoting their purpose into profit by focusing on the following aspects: Personal Healing, Money Mindset and Habits, Finding Your Tribe, Branding and Creating your Signature Service.
