“I’m pleased to introduce Kalyagen to the Fort Lauderdale Open and the South Florida PGA and the PGA Hope program benefiting veterans like myself and some of my team members,” said Desmond Dogan, Director of Sales at Kalyagen®. “As a former golf professional and club pro, I understand the grind that is associated with practicing, playing, teaching, running the pro shop and more. That’s why I’m pleased that Kalyagen is sponsoring Jerrel Gill, presently a Class B-13 PGA Associate. Jerrel will be playing in both the Fort Lauderdale Open and the Hope Classic and will attempt to qualify for the South Florida

Open.”

STEMREGEN® is a unique and patent-pending blend of proprietary plant-based extracts documented to increase the number of circulating stem cells by stimulating Endogenous Stem Cell Mobilization (ESCM). Ingredients in STEMREGEN® have been investigated in more than eight studies for their effect on stem cell function, of which five were randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled human clinical trials. STEMREGEN® has wide application in antiaging and overall health maintenance.

“Despite my local success, I am determined to improve my game and consistently compete against the best PGA Professionals,” said Jerrel Gil, PGA professional golfer. “I have been fortunate enough to partner with Kalyagen and use its stem cell enhancement supplement STEMREGEN to assist me to contend in the South Florida PGA Section and hopefully on the PGA Tour. I’ve already picked up distance on my drive!”

“We are delighted to partner with Jerrel and the South Florida PGA Section,” said Kalyagen® founder and CEO Christian Drapeau. “The link between a lower number of circulating stem cells and the development of age-related diseases and lack of recovery has been well studied. From a therapeutic standpoint, increasing the number of circulating stem cells has been documented to enhance tissue repair and improve the course of disease formation in many degenerative conditions and overall health and well-being. We have already begun to see improvement in Jerrel’s training and recovery efforts and look forward to continuing to assist his golf career with the benefits of STEMREGEN on his team.”

About Kalyagen:
