

Kudzu Blossom Quilt Shop Quitting Business

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 17, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – After over 15 years in business, Kudzu Blossom Quilt Shop, Montgomery’s premier quilting supply and fabric store, is closing its doors forever. A huge “Quitting Business Sale” will begin immediately to liquidate every single item of merchandise, fixture and equipment in the store; to include fabrics, sundries, notions, supplies, books, patterns and more. Featuring famous name brands such as: Moda, Timeless Treasures, Michael Miller, Robert Kaufman and many more.

Located at 51 N. Burbank Dr. in Montgomery, AL (in the Burbank Shopping Fair, corner of Atlanta Hwy. and Burbank Dr.), Kudzu Blossom has been a mainstay in the Alabama quilting community for many years, providing not only supplies, fabrics and ideas, but also conducting classes and supporting quilters of all ages!

Owner Janice Jarrett is saddened, and will miss all her longtime friends she has made over the years, but is excited to begin her new chapter of life.

“This sale is initiated only after careful consideration, and is our way of thanking our dear loyal friends for their business and friendship. We look forward to seeing all our friends during this retirement sale over the next few weeks and take advantage of incredible deals,” said Jarrett.

The marketing firm, G.A. Wright, out of Denver, Colo., has been retained by Kudzu Blossom to conduct the quitting business sale, assigning one of their experienced retail marketing consultants to be on site for the duration of the sale.
