

Leading Edge Veterinary Equipment Signs New Distributor, Midwest Veterinary Supply

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 16, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Leading Edge Veterinary Equipment, an international supplier of new and exclusive veterinary medical equipment, announce their agreement with Midwest Veterinary Supply as the newest authorized distributor of Leading Edge products. Midwest Veterinary Supply is one of the country's premier animal health companies, recently celebrating its 50th Anniversary.

This partnership allows Leading Edge to further expand its market presence across North America. With a sales force of over 100 representatives, Midwest Veterinary Supply will now be adding a suite of more than 20 exclusive veterinary medical products to its equipment offerings, with more Leading Edge products coming to market in the near future.

"We are pleased to have Midwest Veterinary Supply as one of our exclusive distributors to help us deliver essential products to the veterinarian that 'Do more and Cost less'," says Scott Hopkins, Account Executive of Leading Edge Veterinary Equipment. "We're setting a new standard in medical equipment for the Veterinary professional, integrating innovation and world-class support that leads to improved patient care and a better experience for both the Veterinarian and the pet owner."

As a single source Veterinary medical equipment company, Leading Edge products are available only through a limited and select group of Distributors. Leading Edge product lines include fluid management, imaging, patient monitoring, microscopy, sterilization and others.
