

Lethal Weapon #1 wins 2016 / 2017 Prime Time Softball League Championship!

LOS ANGELES, Calif., May 12, 2017 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Thomas Tom Oseransky, Prime Time Softball League (PTSL) board member, congratulates “Lethal Weapon #1” who beat “Pure Genius” 12 to 11 to win the Championship. It was an exciting game that went back and forth and was finally over after an eighth and extra inning.

Send2Press® Newswire

The teams had to wait three months to play the game due to rain delays. Oseransky says the 2016 season began with 30 teams, and 16 made the playoffs.

According to Thomas Tom Oseransky, previous years' Champions have included “Coach,” “Home Improvement,” “Suddenly Susan,” “CSI: NY,” “Smallville,” “Law & Order,” “Bones,” “Castle,” “Parenthood,” “Tonight Show with Jay Leno” and many, many more.

Thomas Tom Oseransky says that, “The PTSL is the Entertainment Business’s longest running softball league and has been in existence since the late ‘80s. The League is coed and rules state that at least two women must be playing for each team at all times.”

Thomas Tom Oseransky has helped run the league since its inception, which was started by himself and Rosario Roveto Jr. and Larry Rosenthal.

For more information on the Prime Time Softball League, visit: <http://www.ptsl.net/>.