

Major eSigning Milestone Achieved: DocMagic Surpasses 100 Million eSignature Transactions for the Mortgage Industry

TORRANCE, Calif., May 11, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – DocMagic, Inc., the premier provider of fully-compliant loan document preparation, compliance, eSign and eDelivery solutions, announced today that its eSign platforms have now processed more than 100 million mortgage-related eSignature transactions.

“We are very pleased with the sheer number of eSignatures that we are seeing executed among our client base,” said Dominic Iannitti, president and CEO of DocMagic. “This is positive news for the mortgage industry as a whole. In previous years, eSign adoption was much lower among lenders working with borrowers. We have always encouraged clients to take advantage of our eSigning technology; this impressive number of transactions certainly reflects that.”

DocMagic is the undisputed leader in the mortgage industry for eSign technologies. The company has a long-standing reputation for developing innovative eSign solutions that integrate seamlessly with mortgage workflows.

DocMagic has two eSign solutions for clients to take advantage of. eSignSystems’ SmartSAFE XL eSigning, eDelivery and eVaulting platform was added to the DocMagic family in 2014. DocMagic’s eSign platform is a separate SaaS-based solution that features the company’s proprietary ClickSign™ technology. SmartSAFE XL is ideal for companies that require more flexibility, extendibility and control over eSigning processes. DocMagic’s eSign technology is highly intuitive, simple to setup, and walks signers through the entire document review process to efficiently, expeditiously and compliantly submit eSignatures.

Notable is that in 2011, in an effort to encourage industry-wide adoption of eSignatures, DocMagic made its eSign technology available to anyone to sign any type of document at no charge. Users can visit DocMagic’s website to quickly and easily eSign documents such as contracts, NDAs, proposals and more.

Documents executed using DocMagic’s eSign technology are as legally effective, valid and enforceable as documents printed and signed in ink.
