

Maple Conservatory of Dance Announce Summer 2013 Ballet Intensive Program

IRVINE, Calif., Jan. 17, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Maple Conservatory of Dance today announced the Summer 2013 Senior and Junior Ballet Intensives Program. Auditions are scheduled on Sunday, February 24, 2013 at the Conservatory's studio at 1824 Kaiser Avenue in Irvine, Calif.

The Junior Intensive (dancers ages 8 to 12 years; females not en pointe) will audition at 2 p.m.

The Summer Intensive (dancers ages 11 to 23 years; females en pointe) will audition at 4 p.m.

The audition form and details can be found at <http://www.MapleConservatory.com/summerprograms.shtml> .

"Our summer intensive program is an opportunity for serious dancers to train in a supportive yet rigorous curriculum taught by a world-class faculty," said Charles Maple, director and co-founder of the Maple Conservatory of Dance. "Students will develop strong, consistent classical technique, which is crucial for successful progress in ballet and other dance styles in a small-class environment."

The complete Maple Summer 2013 program schedule is as follows:

Senior Ballet Intensive (dancers ages 11 to 23; a minimum enrollment of two weeks is required):

June 24 – August 23, 2013.

Junior Ballet Intensive (dancers ages 8 to 12):

August 12 – August 23, 2013.

Pre-Ballet and Preparatory Ballet (dancers ages 7 and under; no audition is required):

June 3 – August 17, 2013.

Beginning and Intermediate Levels (dancers 8 and older; no audition is required):

July 1 – August 23, 2013.

For the pre- and preparatory ballet, as well as beginning and intermediate levels programs, please contact the Maple Conservatory at (949) 660-9930, ext. 27 for more details.

"Many of our alumni have continued to San Francisco Ballet, American Ballet Theatre and major universities," Maple said. "Our refined program prepares serious dancers to meet the demands of a professional career."

Limited supervised housing is available for dancers ages 13 and older.

Dancers must be at least age 8 by June 24, 2013 to attend. A limited number of scholarships will be available.
