Send2Press® Newswire

Now in its fifth year, the HousingWire Rising Stars program honors mortgage industry leaders and innovators under the age of 40. Schiff was profiled in the June 2018 issue of HousingWire magazine alongside other young mortgage and housing luminaries recognized by the publication.

"This year's Rising Stars list represents the only independent award for young professionals in the mortgage space," said Jacob Gaffney, editor-in-chief of HousingWire. "It's a comprehensive snapshot of who's who in our business and the most impressive list to date."

Schiff was recognized for his role in launching Matic and for steering the young company to become the leader in mortgage and servicer distribution of homeowner's insurance. By pulling borrower and property data directly from lender and servicer systems, Matic automatically runs the purchaser's coverage needs against available policies, delivering homeowners a competitive quote within minutes.

"The Matic vision is to make purchasing homeowner's insurance easy, which in turn helps lenders close loans faster and reduce origination costs," said Schiff. "I'm grateful to work with a talented team that shares my commitment to revolutionizing this important component of the digital mortgage process."
