“Azad is a powerful addition to the fantastic team we’ve built in MSR. His knowledge base and experience plug right in to our industry leading valuation platform,” said Tom Farmer, Managing Director of Sales and Business Development. “He shares the MCT DNA with a passion for innovation and customer service.”

This expertise comes at a perfect time for MCT clients. As MSR pricing continues to improve and the need for bulk MSR sales increases, Mr. Rafat's industry expertise can help ensure clients receive the best price for their bulk MSR sales. He will also be able to help clients make important MSR decisions regarding their MSR portfolios.

Mr. Rafat brings to MCT over 30 years of experience in the mortgage industry. He has over 20 years extensive experience in all aspects of mortgage servicing rights valuations, analytics, and risk management of small to some of the largest servicing portfolios. He also spent about 10 years in mortgage servicing acquisitions and sales operations, managing mortgage servicing platforms, and mortgage servicing operations and finance.

"I am honored and excited to work side by side with such talented and innovative group of people," said Azad Rafat. "I look forward to contribute to MCT's continuous growth and success."
