

MCT's Danyel Shipley Honored as one of Mortgage Banking's Most Powerful Women for 2018 by NMP Magazine

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 7, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Mortgage Capital Trading, Inc. (MCT), a leading mortgage hedge advisory and secondary marketing software firm, announced that long-time employee Danyel Shipley was named to National Mortgage Professional Magazine's (NMP) 2018 list of Mortgage Banking's Most Powerful Women.

Send2Press® Newswire

NMP says that the honorees were selected based on their accomplishments where they were instrumental to a major industry innovation, overcoming some seemingly insurmountable obstacle in their career to rise to the top, blaze new trails, the extent of their background and experience in the industry, and how connected they are. In addition, officials at the magazine stated that when compiling the inaugural list, they took three key words into consideration: "Pioneer, Leader and Innovator."

"I am honored to be recognized by NMP magazine for this prestigious award and flattered by all of the support from my peers," said Shipley. "My career in the mortgage industry has been dynamic, fun and challenging. But more than anything, my time spent in helping MCT grow its business and launching new, innovative products and services for the secondary market to leverage has been the most rewarding to date, and I look forward to my future with the firm.”

Danyel Shipley has extensive experience in mortgage lending with an emphasis in capital markets. In her current role at MCT, she has demonstrated exceptional expertise in capital markets consulting. She has been in the mortgage industry since the very beginning of her career, possessing nearly 14 years of experience. Throughout her career, Danyel has worked her way up the ladder as a Loan Officer, Team Lead & Trainer, Branch Manager, Secondary Marketing Trading Analyst, Sales Executive, and is currently MCT’s Regional Sales Director for the West.

At MCT, she has been a key contributor in expanding the company’s West Coast territory by bringing on new lender clients. Other highlights of Danyel’s contributions include providing hedging strategies training, working internally to promote process improvement in the client onboarding process, supporting the development of strategic industry alliances, and effectively communicating MCT’s extensive offering of integrated hedging advisory services, secondary marketing software, business intelligence, MSR services, and more to clients and vendor partners. She plays an instrumental role in coordinating the annual MCT Exchange conference, which is highly regarded for its caliber of prominent attendees and renowned industry keynote speakers. She is known for her high-energy persona, passion, dedication, and willingness to mentor and help her peers be as successful as possible.

“We are excited that Danyel has earned a spot on NMP’s list of Mortgage Banking’s Most Powerful Women for 2018,” stated Tom Farmer, Managing Director and SVP of National Sales at MCT. “Danyel has worked diligently over the years to provide second-to-none support for MCT’s clients and partners, and has played an important role in introducing multiple service offerings, business solutions and software applications to the marketplace. She is a huge asset to the sales and marketing team here at MCT and an industry-leading professional in capital markets.”

Danyel is very active in her local community, while additionally serving on the Board of Directors for Cortez Racing Association where she coordinates 12 regattas annually and Co-Chairs a 10 week regatta series. She consistently attends Mortgage Bankers Association conferences (MBA) and events, as well as state-based MBA shows and regional events. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Management from the University of Redlands.
