Dorr will be responsible for leading the company's management expansion across the Southeast. She will also work closely with Barry E. McWhirter, CEO, to improve the company's IT services, enhance software platforms for internal and external reporting and develop the overall strategy of growth.

"Susan's experience is a natural fit for our company as we grow our management portfolios," said Barry E. McWhirter, CEO. "We are excited about the leadership she brings to our team, and the vast knowledge of cutting-edge systems and processes necessary to ensure we continue to deliver the highest quality services to our clients."

Susan has more than 30 years of healthcare real estate experience with both private and public real estate investment trusts, along with experience in retail and office portfolio management, development and leasing. She is recognized for her ability to deliver successful projects, increase profitability and foster solid client relationships.

Throughout her career she has directed property and asset management platforms for over five million square feet of medical office buildings in the southeast for institutional owners including American Healthcare Investors, Healthcare Trust of America, Cogdell Spencer ERDMAN and Edens & Avant. Dorr holds CPM and CCIM designations, as well as a Georgia and South Carolina Broker's License.
