

Medical Care Alert Earns 2012 Angie's List Super Service Award

NOVI, Mich., Jan. 2, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Medical Care Alert, a national provider of emergency medical alert systems for senior citizens, has earned the 2012 Angie's List Super Service Award in recognition of superior customer service. This recognition is only awarded to the top 5 percent of all companies rated on Angie's List, the nation's leading provider of consumer reviews on local service companies.

"We are thrilled and honored to receive both an 'A' rating and the Super Service Award from Angie's List members," said Erin Rogg, Vice President of Medical Care Alert. "We protect seniors in all 50 states with our 'Help At The Push Of A Button' monitoring service, and our Angie's List subscribers really do their homework."

Rogg also noted that Medical Care Alert has an "A" rating, and is an Accredited Member of the Better Business Bureau.

"It's a select group of companies rated on Angie's List that can claim the exemplary customer service record of being a Super Service Award winner," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "Our standards for the Super Service Award are quite high. The fact that Medical Care Alert earned this recognition speaks volumes about its dedication providing great service to its customers."

Angie's List Super Service Award 2012 winners meet strict eligibility requirements, including earning a minimum number of reports, an excellent rating from their customers and abiding by Angie's List guidelines.
