“When MetaSource acquired Titan, we knew we were getting much more than just complementary technology and services,” said Adam Osther, President & CEO of MetaSource. “Mary Kladde’s extensive knowledge in this space positions MetaSource extremely well as we continue to grow our mortgage product-service line.”

Kladde was previously CEO of Titan Lenders Corp., which MetaSource acquired in March 2016, and has a diverse 24+ years of experience in the operational aspects of the mortgage industry. Prior to co-founding Titan in 2007, she spent more than 15 years developing her deep background in mortgage processes. It is this background that provides her with a keen insight as to what services are needed for individual customers and their prospective business channels.

“To have Titan absorbed into the MetaSource family was one of the crowning achievements of my career. Being tasked with leading MetaSource's next phase of growth in the mortgage segment is icing on top of the cake," Kladde said. "As regulators continue to issue data-centric regulations on this industry, it is imperative that mortgage lenders leverage automation to improve their data management, and I look forward to communicating to the industry how MetaSource can help achieve these aims."

Kladde holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with an emphasis in theatre from California State University, Chico. She resides in the Denver area with her family.
