“Mid America is dedicated to addressing the diverse needs of every borrower, including existing homeowners seeking to tap into their home’s equity in retirement,” said Mid America Owner and CEO Jeff Bode. “Reverse mortgage borrowers are often underserved even though seniors comprise a significant portion of the homeowner market. We’re extremely pleased to announce Jarred has joined our team and thrilled to expand our team of reverse mortgage experts.”

Talmadge brings more than 25 years of mortgage industry experience and has spent the last three years specifically focused on reverse mortgages. Talmadge joins Mid America from the American Advisors Group, where he was the Market Sales Manager for the Rocky Mountain region. In addition to being an industry veteran, Talmadge is an author and instructor, offering real estate agents, loan officers and financial planners courses in sales, marketing and reverse mortgage.

In 2020, Talmadge authored the book "Too Good To Be Free: How a Reverse Mortgage Can Improve Your Life, Your Cash Flow and Pay You Too." It can be found on Amazon.com. He's also been a guest on channel 9News NBC in Denver, Colorado and Company, KLZ AM 560 and on the Michael Bailey Radio Show. Talmadge earned his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Phoenix.

"As a reverse mortgage specialist, I'm passionate about helping lenders, borrowers and real estate agents understand the often-misunderstood product that reverse mortgage is," said Talmadge. "The best part of the mortgage business is being able to help other people, to have this ability expanded at Mid America is exhilarating."
