

Miyelo Music Festival Announces Inaugural Event

TIPP CITY, Ohio, March 31, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Trebius Promotions proudly announces the inaugural Miyelo Music Festival, featuring an exciting lineup of twenty national and local artists performing eleven hours of music across three stages. The festival takes place Saturday, July 18, 2015 in Historic Downtown Tipp City on Main Street.

General Admission tickets for the 2015 festival will be available online at <http://miyelomusicfest.com> on Wednesday, April 15, 2015 at 8 a.m. EDT. Trebius Promotions is working together with Donnie Reis of The Donnie Reis Band to host the event that is a “Party with Purpose.” Proceeds from the Miyelo Music Festival are going to three local charities, most notably Pink Ribbon Girls, an organization that strives to meet the practical needs of families affected by breast cancer.

Miyelo Music Festival will transform the streets of downtown Tipp City into a rockin’ music festival experience. Host-band front man Donnie Reis says, “We expect to show this town and anyone who comes here an incredible time and with a goal to raise $50k for charity. That’s what it’s all about.”

The 2015 lineup features national acts including GRAMMY® nominated songwriter Will Hoge, Brandon Chase from NBC’s The Voice®, Neulore, Kris Allen, winner of the eighth season of American Idol®, Erick Baker, GRAMMY® nominated songwriter Seth Glier, Ben Bradford, Elenowen, Joseph LeMay, Keta, along with several yet-to-be-announced acts.

“We are coming together to enjoy life, celebrate with our friends, remember those who left us too soon, and raise money for causes close to our heart,” stated Mike McDermott, President of Trebius Promotions.
