“We are proud to partner with Texas EquuSearch to help achieve its mission of ensuring that all who go missing are found,” said CEO, Roy Moffitt. “For years, we have been helping Texas EquuSearch and we hope to incent others to do the same, through our offer to match up to $50,000 in total contributions.”

Since 2014, Moffitt Services has been providing funding, fuel, and other resources to assist Texas EquuSearch in searches for missing persons in Texas.

“We are a nonprofit organization, funded solely by donations, and we believe that we can better ourselves by working together to help the community and people in need,” said Tim Miller, founder, and CEO of Texas EquuSearch. “Moffitt Services shares our vision and our passion to help those in need,” added Miller.
