"I know Jennifer to be an unrivaled expert in the fields of mortgage credit risk and due diligence," said Debora Aydelotte, Altavera's chief operating officer and 2014 Elite Woman in Mortgage. "She has played a transformative role both at Altavera, where she built our closed-loan file review service from the ground up, and in the mortgage industry as a whole, where she has left an indelible mark over the course of her 30-year career."

"It's a privilege to be honored among such an influential and experienced field of industry peers," said Fountain. "The challenge of helping loan conduits, aggregators and investors transact their business with total confidence in loan quality and consistency is both a source of personal motivation and a driver of the continuing evolution and innovation of Altavera's service offerings."

Each year, the Mortgage Professional America (MPA) Elite Women in Mortgage list recognizes influential women leaders in the mortgage industry. For a full list of honorees, visit <http://www.mpamag.com/rankings/elite-women-2017>.
