

Mr Cabinet Care Opens Doors to Anaheim High School Students

ANAHEIM, Calif., March 18, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Students at an Anaheim High School received a hands-on chance to learn the basics of business, community leadership, and the lost art of woodworking with local kitchen-and-bath remodeling company Mr Cabinet Care.

Shortly after being voted the “Best Kitchen and Bath Remodeling Company” by Orange County Register readers for the ninth year running, as part of the paper’s annual “People’s Choice” awards, Mr Cabinet Care met with Anaheim Mayor Tom Tait in October of last year. Mayor Tait extended an invitation to the company to help promote benevolence and goodwill locally, through participation in Anaheim’s own “Million Acts of Kindness” campaign.

The Million Acts of Kindness initiative was launched in 2013 as a joint effort between Mayor Tait and the Anaheim City School District. Inspiration for this effort came from “Kindness Week,” a Hillsborough Elementary School program started by local residents Edward and Karine Jaievsky in memory of their 6-year-old daughter Natasha.

As contributors to the campaign, Mr Cabinet Care invited nine Kennedy High School students to spend the day learning and building connections at the company’s Anaheim factory and showroom. Students received practical exposure to the core principles of entrepreneurship, interior design, and community leadership. Company CEO Sid Jaridly and even city official, Mishal Montgomery were present to meet the participants.

“Mr Cabinet Care prides itself not only on providing unparalleled quality and service to Anaheim and OC residents, but also in giving back to the community that’s supported us for nearly three decades,” says Sid Jaridly, Co-Owner and CEO of Mr Cabinet Care.
