The winners were arrived at based on what’s called the Mortgage Company Employer Score (MECS), which takes into account and scores various areas of the business in order to compile the list. NMP readers are polled using the following criteria: corporate culture; compensation; speed; day-to-day management; internal communications; training resources; marketing support; long-term strategy; innovation; technology; and industry participation.

“We are excited to be recognized by National Mortgage Professional magazine as a Top 100 Mortgage Employer for 2017,” commented Vladimir Bien-Aime, president and CEO of Global DMS. “Since our inception in 1999, Global DMS’ success has largely been predicated on the dedication, passion and ingenuity of our employees.”

NMP is one of the mortgage industry’s leading go-to sources for extensive news coverage. The magazine covers the complete gamut of the mortgage industry that includes residential lending, commercial lending, reverse mortgages, origination, compliance, secondary marketing, servicing, settlement, technology, trending, and more.
