Chelle Trucking CEO, Ronice Harrison, said: “At Chelle Trucking and Logistics, we always try to be at the forefront of innovation, so we are committed to delivering an unmatched digital experience for those who seek our expertise in moving freight. This update to ChelleTrucking.com is just the latest example of how we put customer satisfaction at the forefront of everything we do.”

The new website reflects the constant evolution of Chelle Trucking, its technology, and its identity as a leader in innovative freight management solutions for the shipping industry.

Customers can easily learn about the technology and expertise that sets the company apart and benefit from enhancements to the site which include:

- the MacroPoint freight matching system, a digital marketplace giving shippers instant access to more extensive and flexible capacity options
- improved navigation that lets shippers and carriers quickly find resources and get loads moving within 24 to 48 hours
- a brand new Knowledge Base with resources to help customers make important supply chain decisions
- easy access to the entire spectrum of Chelle Trucking's logistics solutions that include warehousing, dispatch, full truckload and LTL shipping, dedicated lanes and spot lanes, vehicle transport and more
