DENVER, Colo., Sept. 3, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The complete online directory to Denver’s marijuana scene is now live on the internet. Denver Weed (DenverWeed.com) features the definitive array of businesses that sell and grow marijuana on the Front Range, as well as original reporting of marijuana related news. The site also features events, maps, specials, surveys and links to jobs in the marijuana industry.

“We wanted to create a one-stop-shop for people seeking out marijuana businesses in the Denver area,” says Denver Weed founder Jason Keeley. “DenverWeed.com was created in 2015 to be a comprehensive directory for the Denver area. We post descriptions and reviews of dispensaries, weed friendly lodging, grow stores, tour companies, lawyers, spas, classes and real estate. The marijuana industry is growing so rapidly that we saw a need for updated information to be handy and under one roof.”

DenverWeed.com is intended to serve the wide variety of consumers who are seeking information about Denver’s marijuana economy. The website features the names, addresses and contact information for recreational and medicinal marijuana establishments and grows, as well as information to help people decide where to shop.

Denver Weed also offers news and information to help people stay current on changes in the industry and the laws. The site covers marijuana businesses in the Denver, Boulder, Aurora and Foothills communities.

“We’re confident people from Colorado, as well as out of state visitors, will find a wealth of information on DenverWeed.com,” says Keeley. “Consumers will find the interactive site to be user friendly and businesses will like how easy it is to tell their story and advertise. In the coming months we intend to create more original content so our visitors can stay informed about marijuana in our communities.”
