

NotaryCam's David Kressel and Henry Smith Honored by HousingWire as Mortgage Industry 'Insiders'

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Sept. 4, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – NotaryCam® today announced that its Vice President of Finance and Operations, David Kressel, and Director of Notary Operations, Henry Smith, were each named to HousingWire's 2018 HW Insiders Award™ list of the mortgage industry's unsung heroes.

Send2Press® Newswire

Kressel's operational expertise, entrepreneurial spirit and passion for innovation have helped define NotaryCam as a company and enabled many of its successes. For instance, Kressel spearheaded the launch of eClose360®, NotaryCam's eClosing platform that remotely brings together closing agents, attorneys, home buyers and real estate agents with a certified notary signing agent to perform mortgage closings. He also helped grow NotaryCam's footprint to serve customers in all 50 U.S. states and over 70 international countries.

Smith was recognized for leading the expansion of NotaryCam's network of eNotaries, the world's largest. He launched NotaryCam Academy, the company's formal program for training, graduating and onboarding professionally certified eNotaries, in 2014. Smith continues to oversee the training of NotaryCam's notary team and manages its ongoing performance to ensure fast, friendly, compliant and consistent service delivery.

Now in its third year, the HW Insiders Award program recognizes "operational all-stars" working across all sectors of the U.S. housing economy, including residential mortgage lending, servicing, investments and real estate. Nominees were selected by HousingWire's editorial staff and judged based on "tangible evidence of significant impact within their individual company, primarily focused upon the past 12 months."

"Excellent customer service is one of NotaryCam's defining values and key differentiators," said Rick Triola, founder and CEO of NotaryCam. "David and Henry lead a culture of outstanding quality and consistency, which has greatly contributed to NotaryCam's 99.8 percent customer satisfaction rating and sky-high Net Promoter Score – the best in the industry. I congratulate them both for this achievement."

"This year's group of Insiders exemplify what it means to get the job done and done right," said HousingWire Online Editor Caroline Basile. "Each of the mortgage and housing professionals we honored made incredible contributions to their companies' successes, and we're excited to recognize their achievements."
