

Oceanside Jewelers is launching a new line of Pandora Jewelry

OCEANSIDE, Calif., Sept. 5, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Oceanside Jewelers, owned and operated by Master Jeweler Chad Elliott, is expanding the store's award winning collection of fine jewelry and engagement rings, and will be launching a new line of Pandora jewelry, bracelets, and charms in store.

Pandora® is an exciting and interchangeable collection of jewelry with countless possibilities. Celebrating the unique and individual moments in every woman's life, Pandora charms allow you to design your own jewelry that expresses your style and unforgettable moments. Each piece is hand crafted in sterling silver and 14k gold with superior Danish design, and includes a collection of over 600 unique charms and beads, accompanied by a full line of jewelry.

Oceanside Jewelers will be launching its new Pandora line of jewelry in conjunction with Main Street Oceanside's Taste of Oceanside restaurant and brewery event. On Saturday, September 13, from noon to 4 p.m., local businesses and restaurants will offer tastings of food and beverages from a variety of local restaurants, breweries and wineries. Oceanside Jewelers will be hosting a craft beer tasting in-store, featuring local brewery Oceanside Ale Works. They will be featuring their new Pandora product line, as well as raffling off a Pandora bracelet and charm as well as beautiful red roses. In addition, Oceanside Jewelers will donate 5 percent of purchases by Park Dale Lane Elementary families and friends back to the school.

"Pandora just seemed like a good fit for our store," says Elliott. "As a jeweler-owned business, our focus has been on custom jewelry with high standards of materials and craftsmanship, and Pandora recognizes those same values in their work. Being the first outside line of jewelry I've brought into the store, I'm confident in the quality and design of Pandora's products alongside my own work."
