“This is an exciting partnership and working with a respected sports tech leader like TeamSnap will help us deliver a top-end digital volleyball platform for our clubs,” said Jo-Anne Ljubicic, Executive Director, Ontario Volleyball. “Providing our clubs with an intuitive management and team solution is a key step in our goal to drive growth and development for the game in Ontario while finding ways to make life easier for the many volunteer staff managing their clubs. TeamSnap has an excellent reputation and is already the number one team management choice for volleyball coaches and clubs across the province.”

Volleyball has become one of the fastest-growing sports across Ontario and all of Canada. Ontario Volleyball is the largest provincial body with 20,000 players, coaches and volunteers across nearly 100 clubs. TeamSnap's innovative sports management technology will support Ontario Volleyball's mandate for growth and development by powering clubs and leagues with easy-to-use integrated solutions for seamless communication, scheduling, payment collection, website creation and hosting.

"Volleyball has been a key driver in the growth of TeamSnap," said Greg Ludke, General Manager, Sports Organizations, TeamSnap. "It's wonderful to work with a forward-thinking association like Ontario Volleyball that is making player development such a priority. We are looking forward to working closely with coaches and administrators to deliver all of the technical tools they need to keep their focus on the court."

As the sport management industry leader, TeamSnap supports more than 20 million users and 2 million unique teams across 100 different sports. Ontario Volleyball is the latest major sports partnership for TeamSnap. The company recently announced new partnerships with Minnesota Youth Athletic Services, Rugby NorCal and Softball BC.
