“Our Vanguard Award is reserved for the true trailblazers in the housing industry, the visionaries that are leading the charge into the future. This year’s winners are the embodiment of that vision. In each corner of the housing industry, they are forging the path, setting the pace, and guiding housing into the next generation. And we couldn’t be prouder to honor them as Vikings,” said HousingWire Managing Editor Ben Lane.

Furey was instrumental in helping boost OpenClose’s year-over-year revenue by more than 100 percent. Further, he played a key role in spearheading the OpenClose business strategy to offer its own digital POS solution, incorporating it with the company’s LenderAssist™ LOS platform and borrower direct portal, ConsumerAssist™. As a result, OpenClose is able to offer a comprehensive digital mortgage solution that is more efficient and cost effective than disparate offerings available on the market.

In addition, Furey helped develop a strategy to implement a RESTful API suite branded IntegrationAssist™, which provides seamless interaction with the OpenClose digital ecosystem. Ultimately, Furey's efforts helped OpenClose's LOS platform, POS system and PPE receive some of the highest Overall Satisfaction and Lender Loyalty Scores in the STRATMOR Group's last two Technology Insight Study reports.

"I am honored to be recognized by HousingWire and extend congratulations to my fellow Vanguard Award winners," stated Furey. "I am grateful for our amazing, innovative OpenClose team who make providing our lender partners modern technology exciting every single day."

HousingWire's 2019 Vanguards have led their respective companies to spectacular success, as evidenced by expanding products, services, and profits. These 50 winners were carefully selected by HousingWire's editorial board, chosen for their vital contributions to their companies and the dynamic way they are changing the industry. The majority of winners are leading from the C-suite, and many are also founders or co-founders of their businesses. Others are making invaluable contributions in business development, strategy, risk management and more.

"HousingWire's Vanguards represent the most inspirational leaders, builders, and shapers of the housing industry," HousingWire Associate Editor Kelsey Ramírez said. "It is one of the most distinguished awards in housing, and personifies the executives that are raising the bar for this industry and taking it to new heights."
