

Pavaso, IDS Co-Host eClosing Event at MBA Annual to Highlight Upcoming Integration

PLANO, Texas, Oct. 13, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Pavaso, a provider of digital collaborative technology for the real estate lifecycle, announced it is co-hosting an event with leading mortgage document preparation provider International Document Services (IDS) during the Mortgage Bankers Association's (MBA's) 102nd Annual Convention and Expo in San Diego later this month. The event, "eClosing All-Stars," will be held on Sunday, Oct. 18 at Petco Park and is intended to promote the partnership of the two companies and their forthcoming integration of the Pavaso Digital Close platform with the idsDoc mortgage doc prep system.

"We're excited to work with a great partner like IDS," said Mark McElroy, CEO and president of Pavaso. "We both know that electronic documents and signatures are only one component of the eClosing process, and the integration between IDS and Pavaso adds more capability to our end-to-end digital process for the real estate industry."

The two companies first announced their intent to partner in May 2015, with the goal of creating a completely digital mortgage origination process from document issuance through closing. The integration is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2015.

"IDS has always been committed to partnering with the best and the brightest companies in the mortgage industry," said Mark Mackey, CEO of IDS. "After years of speculation, the industry is as close as its ever been to realizing a completely electronic mortgage transaction, and we are eager to show the industry the solution we have created with Pavaso."

Tickets to the event are being issued through Pavaso and IDS. To discuss the forthcoming integration, visit Pavaso at Booth #222 or IDS at Booth #519 during the MBA Annual Convention and Expo, Oct. 18-21 at the San Diego Convention Center.
