

PCM of California, Inc. to Manage Mission Viejo's Highland Park Community

MISSION VIEJO, Calif., Nov. 27, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – PCM of California, Inc. (PCM), an Associa company, announced today that it has assumed management of Mission Viejo's Highland Park Homeowners' Association, effective November 1.

The 208-home community is the fifth to be added to PCM's Orange County management portfolio in recent months. PCM now manages 18 associations in the city of Mission Viejo.

"We're pleased with the opportunity to manage the Highland Park community," said PCM's CEO Donny Disbro. "Our growth this past year reflects our award-winning team's reputation for enhancing the quality of life in the communities we manage."

As the property management company, PCM serves as the managing agent to the Association's Board of Directors, providing budget guidance, resident communications support, project coordination as well as oversight of all vendors for various services such as landscaping and painting.

"We're excited to work with the Board and residents in Highland Park," said PCM's Debbie Stinson, community manager for Highland Park. "PCM has enjoyed a long and successful history of working with and enhancing the lives of Mission Viejo residents."
