

PCM of California, Inc. to Manage San Clemente's New Providence Community

MISSION VIEJO, Calif., Dec. 13, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – PCM of California, Inc. (PCM), an Associa company, announced today that it has acquired management duties of San Clemente's New Providence Community Association, effective December 1.

The 225-home community is the sixth to be added to PCM's Orange County management portfolio in recent months. PCM now manages 6 associations in the city of San Clemente.

"We're thrilled to work with the residents of New Providence," said PCM's CEO Donny Disbro. "It's just one of many communities that have placed their trust in PCM in recent months, a reflection of our award-winning team's reputation for enhancing the quality of life in the communities we manage."

As the property management company, PCM serves as the managing agent to the Association's Board of Directors, providing budget guidance, resident communications support, project coordination as well as oversight of all vendors for various services such as landscaping and painting.

"We're excited to work with this new Board and get to know the community's residents," said PCM's Gavin Kuehn, community manager for New Providence. "PCM has enjoyed a long and successful history of working with and enhancing the lives of San Clemente residents."
