Send2Press® Newswire

"It's New Year's Eve for singles, but couples enjoy this party, too," says Phil Seyer director of Professionals Guild. "Couples tell me: 'We love your Professionals Guild events because singles know how to party!'"

To support singles, a special hospitality room is dedicated to a pre-party event. Singles may ask for an invitation to the pre-party party at <https://www.pguild.com/>.

"The Marriott is offering a wonderful deal for deluxe rooms on New Year's Eve," said Seyer, a deluxe room is $124; room and breakfast for two, $165. To get that rate, one may book online at <https://www.pguild.com/>.

New Year's Eve Party tickets must be purchased separately from rooms.

The party includes a live band, the Groove Doctors in the Grand Ballroom, DJ, Mike Westerman in a smaller ballroom, Casino Gaming for $100's in prizes, two free drinks, a big balloon drop at midnight and a champagne toast followed by continued mingling and dancing.

VIP reserved seating and General Admission tickets are available with a huge dance floor.

A professional photographer is available to help you capture your memories. A photo contest adds to the fun. People can also take pictures and upload them to <https://www.facebook.com/groups/bayarefunevents> – a free online social network. Members of the Facebook group then vote online by liking their favorites. The winner is awarded a $50 gift card.

A diverse mix of adults 18+ attends this event. Most are in their 30's, 40's, 50's – some younger, some older. Dress code: semi-formal to formal. No casual attire, please.

For more information, call the Professionals Guild at 925-888-4392. For room reservations book online at <https://www.pguild.com/> by 12/30/18; after that one must call the San Ramon Marriott at 800-228-9290 and ask for the special New Year's Eve Party room block.
