“Bryan’s promotion and the addition of Helen signify our need to expand our top talent to fuel our growth,” said Promontory MortgagePath Founder and CEO Gene Ludwig. “Bryan has been an exceptional team member, and Helen’s deep expertise and success in mortgage banking are just the right combination to help our clients continue to grow and expand market share. On behalf of our entire team, I want to congratulate Bryan on this well-deserved promotion and welcome Helen to Promontory MortgagePath.”

Prior to his promotion, DeShasier was Managing Director of Product and Process. In addition to his work on the company’s point-of-sale (POS) technology, Borrower Wallet®, he was instrumental to the development and launch of Transform, Promontory MortgagePath’s latest service delivery model combining licensed loan coordinators, POS technology and fulfillment services to offer a complete mortgage operations platform from application to close. DeShasier played a key role in launching Promontory MortgagePath’s initiative to support community development financial institutions’ (CDFIs) and minority depository institutions’ (MDIs) efforts to expand access to credit and homeownership in underserved communities. Since then, he has helped onboard the program’s first two participants.

Placente has more than 25 years of experience in the mortgage banking industry. Most recently, she served as Senior Vice President of Servicing Management at Freedom Mortgage Corporation, where she was called upon to launch the company’s servicing outreach program to assist borrowers affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as those experiencing non-pandemic-related financial hardships. Placente also served as Vice President of Wholesale at Mr. Cooper, where she monitored underwriting processes and was the business lead for pre- and post-funding in the quality control department. She has also held executive-level positions in mortgage servicing and originations, non-retail lending, quality assurance and risk management for Caliber Home Loans, TIAA Bank (formerly EverBank) and Aurora Bank.

“Having worked closely with both Bryan and Helen in the past, I am thrilled to have them on our executive team,” said Debora Aydelotte, Chief Operating Officer at Promontory MortgagePath. “Their talent, drive and resourcefulness are tremendous assets to Promontory MortgagePath as we deliver the digital mortgage tools and operational support community lenders need to profitably compete in the current mortgage market.”
