

ProSource Announces Acquisition of IT Services Company, Infitech

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 28, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – ProSource, the tri-state leader in office technology and business solutions, today announced the acquisition of Infitech, a managed network services provider for small and medium sized businesses. The acquisition of Infitech expands ProSource’s office technology solutions to include a full-range of IT offerings.

Founded in 1999 by Jeffrey Loeb and Dan Winterhalter, Infitech provides onsite and remote computer and network services, back-up and disaster recovery appliances and services, software and web application development as well as network security and firewall systems. The acquisition of Infitech enhances ProSource’s mission of providing a full spectrum of technology-driven products and services to simplify office operations, reduce costs and maximize productivity.

“To compete and win, businesses must maximize today’s latest technology and gain access to ideas and technical capabilities to drive their business forward,” states Brad Cates, President and CEO. “Infitech delivers best-in-class managed IT without significant investment, infrastructure and cost. This is a natural extension to our office technology portfolio and will deliver value to our customers and the market.”

“We are excited to join the ProSource team,” states Jeffrey Loeb, President of Infitech. “By combining the portfolios of products and services of both ProSource and Infitech, we are in a unique position to provide and manage all the technology needs of our clients. Our solutions will provide a single source for our clients to ensure efficiency, reliability and security of their technology infrastructure.”
