

RB Jergens Miyelo Sponsorship Paves the Way for Music Festival

TIPP CITY, Ohio, May 28, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Trebius Promotions is proud to announce that RB Jergens has joined Miyelo Music Festival’s sponsors, adding generous support to the event’s fundraising efforts, which benefit local charities, including Pink Ribbon Girls. Pink Ribbon Girls meets the practical needs of families affected by breast cancer.

“RB Jergens is a major player in much of the infrastructure east of the Mississippi and they take the welfare of their communities’ very seriously,” said Michael McDermott, President of festival co-promoter, Trebius Promotions. “Of course, their generous support demonstrates that. They not only build bridges across rivers, they’re building bridges to hope for breast cancer survivors and their families.”

RB Jergens is a general contractor from Vandalia, Ohio (a suburb of Dayton) that performs a wide variety of environmental and heavy civil construction projects. They build in waste / environmental construction projects as well as public improvement projects of all varieties (roads, bridges, site development, asphalt paving, and concrete work). RB Jergens excels in large, complex, fast-track earthwork projects as well as integrated ash management projects. They have worked for a wide variety of owners including municipalities, national design-build firms, national waste disposal companies, and large utility companies.

Miyelo Music Festival, presented by Dave Arbogast will take place Saturday, July 18, 2015 in Historic Downtown Tipp City. General Admission tickets for the 2015 festival are available online at <http://miyelomusicfest.com/>.

Trebius Promotions is working with Donnie Reis of The Donnie Reis Band to host the event that is a “Party with Purpose.” Miyelo Music Festival will transform the streets of downtown Tipp City into a music festival experience.

Host-band front man and Twelve3South Producer Donnie Reis says, “We expect to show this town and anyone who comes here an incredible time and with a goal to raise $50k for charity. That’s what it’s all about.”

The 2015 lineup features national acts including GRAMMY® nominated songwriter Will Hoge, Brandon Chase from NBC’s The Voice®, Neulore, Kris Allen, winner of the eighth season of American Idol®, Host of the PBS television show Tennessee Uncharted, Erick Baker, GRAMMY® nominated songwriter Seth Glier, Ben Bradford, Elenowen, Joseph LeMay, Keta, along with several yet-to-be-announced and nationally recognized acts.

“We are coming together to enjoy life, celebrate with our friends, remember those who left us too soon, and raise money for causes close to our heart,” stated McDermott.
