Qbix Accounting Solutions provides client accounting advisory services to nonprofit organizations, often referred to as outsourced accounting services. Qbix Accounting Solutions offers outsourced accounting services, expertise and technology for nonprofits which are best-practice oriented: nonprofits committed to presenting the utmost accountability and transparency by outsourcing their accounting for expert execution thereby maintaining a lean administrative team and focusing more resources on core competencies central to their mission.

“The AICPA has come out with a new designation for accountants who provide CAAS (Client Accounting Advisory Services),” explains Qbix Accounting Solutions President Rocky Davidson, CPA. “I obtained the certificate by completing coursework both online and at a 2-day class at the AICPA

The American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) is the world’s largest member association representing the accounting profession, with more than 418,000 members in 143 countries, and a history of serving the public interest since 1887. The AICPA sets ethical standards for the profession and U.S. auditing standards for private companies, nonprofit organizations, federal, state and local governments. It develops and grades the Uniform CPA Examination, and offers specialty credentials for CPAs.
