"This is the only gigantic and exquisite New Year's Eve party for singles in Sacramento. A lot of unhitched males and cheerful available ladies go to this party. This makes the occasion quite different from other New Year's gatherings," says Phil Seyer, chief of Professionals Guild. "Every big hotel in Sacramento sets up a New Year's gathering, But we are the only Sacramento association that offers a tremendously, rich gathering like this for singles with couples also welcome."

Seyer concluded, "A spouse as of late let me know: 'My wife cherishes your Professionals Guild events on the grounds that singles know how to party!'"

Entertainment includes two live bands, gaming for prizes, photography, and smooth jazz for easy listening.

Party goers can move from room to room for distinctive encounters with no extra fee.

Professionals from varying backgrounds attend this New Year's Eve celebration. "It's a grand blend of individuals of all ages 21 up," said Seyer. "Although some in their 20's attend, those in their 30's, 40's, 50's, 60's and even 70's will fit in well."

With respect to dress, Seyer clarified, "Men ought to dress like a prince. Women will love them for it."
