

Sarasota Attorney David L. Goldman Participates in 'Flight To North Pole'

SARASOTA, Fla., Dec. 16, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Attorney David L. Goldman of the law firm Shapiro, Goldman, Babboni & Walsh attended the “Flight to the North Pole” event at the Sarasota Bradenton International Airport on Thursday, December 11, 2015.

Organized by the Manatee County Sheriffs Office, the annual event is a benefit held for terminally ill children and their families. The festivities feature a lunch and several live performances. The performances included holiday music from a children’s choir and played by bagpipers, while Santa’s elves and clowns entertained the children.

Held at the Sarasota/Bradenton Airport the event culminates with the arrival of Santa Claus by helicopter. After landing Santa meets with each child and their family to give them a wish list of toys and presents they had requested in their letters to Santa.

This was the 30th anniversary of “Flight to the North Pole,” and over 300 children were able to meet with Santa who personally delivered them their presents. There are 117 families that participated, each having a terminally ill child whose uncertain and precarious futures are given a brief moment of magic and joy.

Attorney David L. Goldman had this to share about the event, “For 30 years Sidney Etedgui of the Manatee County Sheriffs Office has been organizing this event and takes great pride in its growth over the years, and in the support received by the Manatee County Sheriffs Office and countless others who volunteer their time and services to make the event such a success. To see the community come together to help these children is truly touching and heartwarming.”
