Send2Press® Newswire

Specializing in providing attorneys and legal practitioners with insight and advice from other legal professionals, as well as opinions and updates on the latest legal news in a wide variety of practice areas, Attorney and Practice Magazines awards list was created to recognize the achievements of the top 1% of trial lawyers.

The organization awards the top attorneys in several legal practice areas including Plaintiff's Attorneys, Family Law, Criminal Defense and DUI Defense.

With personal injury cases frequently having millions of dollars and quality of life issues at stake, the plaintiff's attorneys awards category drew some of the nation's best trial lawyers.

Attorney David Shapiro offered this comment about winning the award, "It's an honor to be selected as one of Attorney and Practice Magazines Top 10. Having credentials such as this helps an attorney reassure their potential clients that they have the experience and recognition to handle their case. Victims of personal injury are often in a very vulnerable state both financially and emotionally and any way an attorney can reassure their client will be helpful."
