

Shapiro Goldman Babboni & Walsh Attorneys Attend Florida Justice Association's 'Workhorse' Seminar

ORLANDO, Fla., April 6, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Attorneys from the southwest Florida personal injury law firm Shapiro Goldman Babboni & Walsh attended the Florida Justice Association's annual "Workhorse" seminar held at the Orlando World Trade Center Marriott.

Opening with keynote speaker, two-time Olympic Gold Medalist and 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup champion Abby Wambach, the four day event featured dozens of seminars for civil and criminal trial attorneys and more than 100 speakers.

Members of Shapiro Goldman Babboni & Walsh attending the Workhorse seminar included Attorneys M. David Shapiro and Michele Stephan of the Sarasota Office, as well as attorneys Bernard F. Walsh, and Daniel Murphy from the law firm's Bradenton Office location.

The 30th Anniversary of the FJA Workhorse offered guests a wide variety of seminars for attorneys of all experience levels that focused on improving and building the skills needed to represent clients in various areas of legal practice. Prominent seminars during the 4-day event included sessions on Florida's adoption of Daubert vs Frye, representing clients who have suffered traumatic brain injury, trial preparation, proving and arguing damages and representing clients in premises liability claims.

Attorney Bernard Walsh had this comment about the event, "The FJA Workhorse seminar is one of the most important continuing legal education events held in Florida each year. 'Workhorse' is a rare opportunity to network with so many attorneys and legal professionals from around the State. Participants of the seminar help to foster a valuable exchange of ideas and experiences that contribute to strengthening the Florida legal system, and is especially valuable as attorneys must now adjust courtroom strategies around Daubert."
