SimpleNexus' mobile-first mortgage platform is not only growing rapidly, it's also changing consumer behavior. Recently the firm released data indicating that the majority of borrowers applying for a mortgage loan now prefer a mobile-driven application process. As of May 2019, mobile applications account for more than 50% of all mortgage applications submitted through the SimpleNexus platform.

"SimpleNexus' growth is propelled by market demand for mobile-first origination tools that effortlessly move borrowers from applicants to homeowners," said SimpleNexus Founder and CEO Matt Hansen. "We're delighted that our passion for transforming the mortgage lending experience has landed us on the Inc. 500 for a second year.”

To date, SimpleNexus has connected its 20,000 active loan originators with 1.1 million borrowers and 65,000 realtor partners to produce nearly five million loans totaling over $100 billion in volume. Last year the company added 60 clients to its roster, bringing the total number of enterprise lenders SimpleNexus empowers to “do more” to 223, including 15 of the top 25 retail lenders in the United States.

“The companies on this year’s Inc. 5000 have followed so many different paths to success,” said Inc. editor in chief James Ledbetter. “There’s no single course you can follow or investment you can take that will guarantee this kind of spectacular growth.
