

Simplifile Makes Inc. Magazine's List of Best Workplaces 2018

PROVO, Utah, June 5, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Simplifile, a leading provider of real estate document collaboration and recording technologies for lenders, settlement agents, and counties, today announced that it has been named by Inc. magazine as one of the Best Workplaces for 2018. Now in its third year, Inc.'s Best Workplaces recognizes private American companies that provide employees with excellent benefits, deeply gratifying job engagement, and a supportive work culture where they feel valued.

“Being selected as one of Inc.’s Best Workplaces is a major point of pride,” said Simplifile President Paul Clifford. “Each day I want every employee at Simplifile to know that their contributions are valued and appreciated. I try to communicate that by providing a clear company mission, fostering a collaborative culture that encourages professional growth, and ensuring that every employee receives excellent compensation and benefits so that they are empowered to pursue fulfilling lives outside of the office.”

The Inc. Best Workplaces award program assessed applicants by administering a unique, 30-question survey to a statistically proportionate number of employees at each applying company. The survey responses were then evaluated by Quantum Workplace. Researchers at Quantum Workplace identified a common trend among the most well-liked employers: employees who feel valued are far more engaged in their work.

“By including an employee survey into this year’s Best Workplaces selection process, we’ve really raised the bar,” says James Ledbetter, Inc. editor-in-chief. “Companies that don’t score at the very top of their peer group don’t make the cut. So, our hats are off to the winners. They all excelled at engaging their workers, making them feel appreciated, and aligning them behind a mission. And remember, that’s not just our opinion: The employees told us that themselves.”
