"We commend Nancy and Vicki for this well-deserved recognition," said Simplifile President Paul Clifford. "Both Nancy and Vicki have been instrumental in not just the overall growth and success of Simplifile, but also in the push to build out the final infrastructure necessary to achieve widespread industry access to e-mortgage capabilities."

"Recognitions like these are always an unexpected honor to receive," Alley said. "I'm proud of the strides Simplifile has made to help make the digital mortgage a reality, and to have played a role in those efforts is extremely gratifying.”

“I’ve been privileged enough to have observed the real estate transaction from just about every angle, and we’ve never been closer to taking the full transaction digital than we are now,” DiPasquale said. “I’ve been blessed to work with such an innovative company as Simplifile for almost a decade and am tremendously honored to have my efforts on behalf of the company and the industry recognized in such a public forum.”
