RALEIGH, N.C., Dec. 20, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Sokal, a leader in automobile advertising in North Carolina, opened a new, cutting-edge office space in the Charlotte area.

Send2Press® Newswire

Sokal has been a long-time frontrunner in the competitive automobile marketing business. As the company continues to grow and expand, the Charlotte area has become a prime location to appropriate Sokal's resources.

"I couldn't be more pleased to have our office space in this booming area, where there is a great sense of community and connection," stated Mark Sokal,

CEO of Sokal. "I love this area of the country and I'm confident that our continued growth and expansion will serve this Charlotte area, well with our marketing, web solutions, creative services, and more that we offer. We have an incredible team of highly trained experts in the field, and we will continue to offer our high standard of advertising needs to all of our clients."

The current Charlotte Sokal team now occupies the new 9,000 square foot venue which opened on November 1, 2019 at the new location at: 9911 Northcross Center Ct., Huntersville, NC 28078.

This Sokal team, along with their base in Raleigh, is comprised of sales, marketing, accounting, coordinators, and more and they will continue to service the 300+ clients that the ad agency giant handles on a monthly basis for advertising needs.

"As I've been at Sokal for many years and experienced the astounding growth and integrity of the company, I am extremely excited to see this new location take off," Melissa Clark, COO Client Operations of Sokal commented. "We are a growing family of varying backgrounds, cultures, expertise, and creative passion. We're all in this together and my wish for the team who'll be occupying this new office space in the Charlotte area all the best!"
