

Sterling McGregor joins Dealpoint Merrill as Co-Founder and Chief Investment Officer

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 7, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Dealpoint Merrill (subsidiary of The Merrill Group of Companies), a regional owner and operator of “value added” adaptive reuse properties, retail conversions and investments, is proud to announce Sterling McGregor has joined the company as Co-Founder and Chief Investment Officer.

In his new role, McGregor is responsible for the development of new investment platforms, overseeing the company’s real estate portfolio, structuring and implementing securities investment offerings sponsored by Merrill.

“Sterling is a gifted professional who brings a vast amount of knowledge and good judgment to our clients and colleagues,” said David Frank, DealPoint Merrill’s CEO.

During McGregor’s tenure in the real estate securities industry, he has acquired approximately 20 million square feet of investment properties with direct acquisition, operations and capital raising oversight for numerous private and public offerings. McGregor is a licensed FINRA Securities Representative, a California Real Estate Broker with a degree in finance from Brigham Young University.
