

Sweepstake And Discounts – UltFone Announces Apple iOS 15 Celebration

NEW YORK, N.Y., Sept 14, 2021 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – On July 7, Apple, the smartphone brand, announced the beta version of iOS 15 for all users; this announcement was long-awaited, and the revelation brought a wave of excitement amongst iPhone users, who were ready to give their phone an upgraded look. To help iOS users enjoy the upgrade to the fullest, UltFone, a software company specializing in iOS solutions, announced an iOS 15 celebration campaign from Sept. 16 to October 31, 2021. This celebration aims to help iOS users make the most of their devices and enjoy the latest version in peace.

The iOS 15 celebration campaign, upon its commencement, is expected to multiply the excitement of all iOS users. It has four different prizes in sweepstakes and a 70% discount on the company's two highest selling products. The celebration event isn't restricted to UltFone or iOS users only, and everybody can avail the discount and participate in the sweepstake. Not to forget, UltFone was the first to come up with a solution to iOS upgrade woes, and these discounts mean a lot to customers that are having troubles with their devices.
