

Syntax Creative Adds Children's Music Arm of Steven Furtick's Elevation Church

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 21, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Syntax Creative is pleased to announce a new deal with Elevation Church, which Outreach Magazine named in 2015 the 15th largest church in America. Pastored by Steven Furtick, the multi-site church with 20,000 weekly attendees calls over a dozen locations home, including its base in Matthews, North Carolina. Elevation Church will release its second Kids Worship album, “One In a Million,” worldwide on April 29, which is available for pre-order now at iTunes, Amazon and Google Play.

“I’m really excited about the release of our second Kids album,” Furtick said. “Our teams have done an amazing job putting this project together and I believe ‘One In a Million’ is an album of worship that will have the whole family singing together!”

“We want to leverage digital media as much as we can to share the Gospel,” Elevation Family Pastor Frank Bealer said. “Elevation Church has become known for powerful worship experiences and a kids ministry that ‘Engages Kids & Empowers Family,’ and we will continue to press on to embody those attributes.”

“Elevation Church is organized and innovative,” Syntax CEO Timothy Trudeau said. “It’s rare to see that much vision combined with that much execution. I am looking forward to helping them fulfill their mission.”

Elevation Church’s first Kids album, “Undefeated,” topped iTunes’s top-selling children’s music chart and charted on Billboard. Endorsements of its music have come from NewSpring, Saddleback, NorthPoint and Hillsong Kids.

“I’ve been looking for a way to partner with Syntax Creative,” Bealer said. “I believe that they will help us improve our marketing and distribution.”

“After meeting with the staff in person, I could tell that they were exactly the kind of organization we would want to partner with,” Trudeau said. “I appreciate their work ethic, creativity and desire to create high quality art.”
