

Tax Specialty Firm KBKG Hires New Director of Research and Development Tax Credits

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 30, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Nationwide tax specialty firm KBKG adds Research & Development Tax Credits Director Jonathan Tucker to their Atlanta team of experts. Jonathan brings over 15 years of experience providing federal business tax advisory services to clients in various industries including technology, manufacturing, transportation, healthcare, retail and consumer products, hospitality, media and entertainment, financial and other professional services industries.

Send2Press® Newswire

Prior to KBKG, Jonathan spent nearly 15 years at Big Four firms leading advisory and specialty tax groups. He provided support to clients with the implementation of specialized tax consulting projects including research and development tax credit studies, tangible property capitalization, section 199 deductions, meals and entertainment studies, cost segregation studies, transaction cost analysis, as well as various tax accounting methods including revenue and expense recognition.

Jonathan received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting as well as a Master's in Taxation from the University of Georgia.

"We are all elated to have Jon join the KBKG team. Jon's experience will further strengthen our team and help to deliver value to our clients and CPA partners both in the Southeast and nationally. His background, personality, and experience fit in perfectly with all that we are trying to accomplish," remarked Kevin Zolriasatain, KBKG R&D Tax Credit Principal.

KBKG's Southeast practice is comprised of a team of engineers and specialists based out of the firm's Atlanta office and led by Principal John W. Hanning. In addition to research and development services, KBKG offers cost segregation, transfer pricing, green building tax incentives, and other tax specialty services to businesses in and around the southeast region including Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Alabama, as well as nationally. KBKG's Southeast office is located at 44 Milton Avenue, Suite 101, Alpharetta, GA 30009.

About KBKG:

Established in 1999 with offices across the U.S., KBKG provides turn-key tax solutions including research and development tax credits, cost segregation, green building tax incentives, transfer pricing, and more to CPAs and businesses nationwide. Learn more at <https://www.kbkg.com/>.