

TeamSnap Names Daryl Overholt as Chief Financial Officer

BOULDER, Colo., April 10, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – TeamSnap, the service that helps you manage your sports teams and activities, today appointed Daryl Overholt as Chief Financial Officer. Daryl will lead TeamSnap’s financial, accounting and administrative operations, and help the leadership team accelerate the company’s growth.

“Since securing our Series B a couple of months ago, TeamSnap has been laying the foundation for faster acceleration,” said David DuPont, CEO, TeamSnap. “Bringing Daryl on is part of that strategy – he has great experience with emerging technology companies and expands the strength of TeamSnap’s management team.”

Daryl brings more than 20 years of financial management experience with companies ranging from venture-backed startups to multinational corporations. Before joining TeamSnap, Daryl was the CFO of Starboard Storage Systems and Aztek Networks. Prior to Aztek, he spent 5 years with Sequel Venture Partners, an early-stage venture capital firm with a focus on technology and healthcare. Daryl also served a range of technology clients for more than a decade at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

In the last couple of months since its most recent funding, TeamSnap has increased customers to more than 5.5 million. Customers interacted with the service and the company’s mobile app more than 40 million times in March alone.

TeamSnap’s app is available on the iTunes App Store or Google Play.
