

Texas Country Reporter to Air Special Thanksgiving Show Teaming with Mueller Metal Roofs & Buildings to Present Special Story of Giving

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 11, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Texas Country Reporter with Kelli & Bob Phillips teams up with Mueller, Inc., a leading manufacturer of steel buildings and residential metal roofing, to extend a helping hand to a Texas non-profit in need of a new facility. The Helping Hand campaign, now in its 8th year, awarded Floral Heights Community Food Pantry of Wichita Falls, Texas.

Send2Press® Newswire

Every year TCR devotes an entire episode to Helping Hand. This year we'll initiate Floral Heights Community Food Pantry into the club. We'll meet the volunteers who provide the needed help, tour their current facilities and watch "The Mueller Men" put up their building in just 3 days.

This special program will air over Thanksgiving weekend, November 26 and 27, 2016 on Texas Country Reporter seen in every TV market in the State of Texas.

Mike Snyder, the TV show's producer said, "This is the biggest show we do each year, and it reminds our crew, our sponsors and our viewers that we can make a difference in people's lives, all in service of the greater good."

Previous recipients of Mueller's Helping Hand include Titus County Cares of Mount Pleasant, Texas; Buckholts VFD; West Texas Gifts of Hope in Odessa, Texas; Scheib Mental Health Center of San Marcos, Texas; The Deaf and Hard of Hearing Center of Corpus Christi, Texas; Ruth's Place of Granbury, Texas and The Arc of Greater Beaumont.

A complete listing of the days and times the show airs in cities across Texas is also on the program's web site, <http://texascountryreporter.com/>.

This weekly, half-hour TV program is produced by Phillips Productions, Inc., a subsidiary of Phillips MediaSource of Dallas, Texas, an all-in-one source for video content development, HD production and distribution on all video platforms.
