“We’re thrilled to celebrate our five-year anniversary of the Event Planner Expo,” Jessica Stewart, vice president, marketing, EMRG Media, says. “This is one of the best places for New York City event planners and corporate decision makers to network and to make long-lasting connections and partnerships. We’ve got the best in the business in attendance. It’s going to be an extraordinary event.”

The Event Planner Expo connects corporate and independent event planners with key decision makers, vendors, venues and top hospitality professionals. More than 2,500 attendees and 150 vendors will have the opportunity to build strategic partnerships, get inspired by cutting-edge trends and close deals for the coming year.

Some of the top vendors in the event planning industry such as Espace, Marriot, Five Senses Catering, Statue of Liberty and Shiro of Japan will all be there. And, this year's Event Planner Expo even has an exclusive VIP networking lounge where people can form partnerships and take their business to the next level. To access, a VIP ticket or speaker series ticket is necessary. Building a killer contact list has never been easier.

Finally, keynote speaker, Martha Stewart, will share industry insights and additional speakers Colin Cowie, a well-known lifestyle guru and television personality, and Randi Zuckerberg, CEO of Zuckerberg Media and former Marketing Director at Facebook, will also share their experiences.

Admission tickets range in price from $49 for general admission to $499 for the All Access Pass. For more information, visit:
