Since May, the Collaborative has welcomed the following members to its cooperative:

Intercontinental Capital Group – Jericho, N.Y.

Mortgage Services III – Bloomington, Ill.

Sistar Mortgage – Shelby Township, Mich.

Movement Mortgage – Indian Land, S.C.

“This is an extraordinary milestone for us,” said David G. Kittle, CMB, Vice Chairman of the Collaborative. “As we move into the second half of 2016 and towards our August Summer Conference in Denver, we’ll be exploring how TMC will leverage its growing production to help our members compete more effectively in the challenging lending environment.”

“The Mortgage Collaborative offers its members measurable marketplace advantages,” Kittle added. “Not the least of which is belonging to a true independent cooperative, an organization that is singularly focused on the wellbeing of our members.”

About The Mortgage Collaborative:

Based in San Diego, California, The Mortgage Collaborative was founded in 2013 to empower mortgage lenders across the country with better financial execution, reduced costs, enhanced expertise and improved compliance and to help its members access the dynamic and changing consumer base in America.

The association is managed by its founding members: John Robbins, CMB; David Kittle, CMB; Gary Acosta, CEO of the National Association of Hispanic Real Estate Professionals (NAHREP); and Jim Park, former chair of the Asian Real Estate Association of America (AREAA). Robbins and Kittle are former chairmen of the Mortgage Bankers Association of America (MBA).
