

The Seidel Diesel Group Becomes a Master Distributor of Honeywell Garrett Turbochargers

BOLINGBROOK, Ill., April 13, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Seidel Diesel Group is excited to announce its new business relationship with Honeywell Garrett®. Effective March 1, 2018, Seidel Diesel Group became one of Honeywell Garrett's master distributors for the United States and Canada, representing genuine Garrett original equipment turbochargers.

Send2Press® Newswire

This new business relationship will provide Honeywell Garrett with additional distribution coverage while allowing The Seidel Diesel group to provide a comprehensive offering across the country. This will provide SDG's customers faster access to the full range of Garrett products by strategically stocking in their warehouses.

"The Seidel Diesel Group is proud to work with such a prestigious organization as Honeywell Garrett," stated Paul Thoms, President of SDG. "We are thrilled to be included in such an elite group as the other Honeywell Garrett master distributors and excited about the potential for our customers and employees."
